FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS:

HON. THOMAS WREN,
Of Eureka.

HON. M. S. BONNIFIELD,
Of Humboldt.

HON. C. C. POWNING,
Of Washoe.

ALTERNATE ELECTORS:

HON. GEO. S. NIXON, Of Humboldt.

HON. GEO. BROWN, Of Storey.

HON. W. J. WESTERFIELD, Of Lyon.

FALSE OR INDISCREET FRIENDS.

There are two papers published in Nevada, both in the shadow of the United States Mint, which pretend to advocate the re-election of Hon. H. F. Bartine to Congress. Possibly, or, to be more liberal, probably they are sincere in their professions, but their words convey the idea that they are not. They know, if they are capable of appreciating the political situation in Nevada, that there is but one question in which the masses of the people, the non-office seeking citizens, are taking much interest, and that is the silver question. They know that both the Republican and Democratic national platforms are against the free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 grains of silver to 1 grain of gold. They know that a Republican Congress eighteen months ago defeated a free coinage bill and that a Democratic Congress twice during the present session followed the example of the Republicans. They know that the money powers controlled the Minneapolis Convention, which nominated Harrison, and the Chicago Convention, which nominated Cleveland, and that the metropolitan newspapers east and west, who are run in the interest of the gold men, are supporting one or the other of those candidates. They know that there is but one Presidential candidate in the field who is unequivocally in favor of the free coinage of silver and that candidate is not Cleveland nor Harrison. They know that there is a political revolution in the State which has never been equaled in intensity anywhere in the United States since the breaking out of the war, if then. They know that in many counties in the State there is really but one sentiment, and that is in favor of free coinage, and that the old parties are completely ignored. They know that those men who pretend to favor free coinage while supporting Cleveland or Harrison are not and cannot be sincere in their professions and must be knaves or dupes; knaves if they are trying to deceive and dupes if they are being deceived. They know that on Wednesday, July 13, in the House of Representatives, according to the official report of the proceedings published in the Congressional Record, Mr. Bartine said: "I look upon the question of the free coinage of silver as being more important than the success of any political party. I regard it as a great question of principle, and for that reason I want it to come before the House in such a way that we can obtain substantial results." They know that all the people of Nevada who are capable of comprehending the situation believe with Mr. Bartine that free coinage is the paramount issue and is of more importance than the success of any party, and that four fifths of the people will vote for the free coinage candidate for President, yet, in the face of all these facts and with all this knowledge in their possession, they endeavor to saddle Mr. Bartine, who says free coinage is more important than the success of any party, with Mr. Harrison, who accepts the nomination for President on an anti-silver platform and who cannot possibly get the electoral votes of Nevada unless the people are playing baby politics and they are not suspected of doing that.

If those papers at the Capital are sincere in their advocacy of Mr. Bartine's re-election, rather than compel him to bear the weight of Harrison, they should relieve the gentleman from the imputation that he endorses the Minneapolis anti silver plank and stolidifies himself by proclaiming in the House of Representatives that the free coinage of silver is more important than the success of any party while advocating the election of a Wall Street candidate. They should also do Mr. Bartine justice by stating that he regards free coinage as a great question of principle, and that he is in no way responsible for the personal attacks they are making on Mr. Newlands.

As Mr. Bartine looks upon free coinage as being more important than party success and regards it as a great question of principle he will doubtless repudiate the attempt to make him endorse Harrison, and cast his lot with the Silver party of Nevada, in which event he would doubtless lose his pretended friends at Carson, who are doing him more injury than avowed enemies.

REPUDIATES THE WALL STREET NOMINEES.

The White Pine News places at the head of its columns the People's party ticket for President and Vice President and the electoral ticket of the Silver party of Nevada, nominated at Reno. It says it has not acted in a hasty mood nor spirit of revenge, but after consideration of the issues involved in the coming national election. It sees nothing of special interest to the people that divides the Republican and Democratic parties. Neither advocates a measure that is calculated to benefit the great mass of the people. Both concede that the tariff on import duties must defray the expenses of the Government, and what the Democrats mean by tariff for revenue only is not much different from what the Republican cry of protection implies, and if the Democrats had charge they would collect the tax just the same. Wall Street controls both parties and its leaders dance to the tune of its golden lyre and make the poor, deluded people take sides where there is no principle involved.

On the other hand the Omaha Convention proclaimed principles that are worthy of the consideration of the American people, among them, in plain language without if or ands, the declaration in favor of the free and unlimited coinage of both gold and silver at the ratio of 16 to 1.

"Who, then," asks the News, "should we support for President and Vice President of the United States? The nominees of the old parties, who care nothing for the interests of the people, or the candidates of the People's party?" Its choice is Weaver and Field, and for them will be cast the vote of Nevada next Fall if the people vote as they talk.

GENERAL WEAVER'S CHANCES IN THE HOUSE.

The Harrison-Cleveland combination lays great stress upon the assumption that if the election of President goes to the House Cleveland will be elected. The Silver State shows from the record that this is improbable unless the Republican States vote for Cleveland. It is reasonable to suppose that the Members of Congress who stood firm for free coinage against Cleveland and Harrison, London and Wall Street on the test vote on the Stewart bill will vote for General Weaver, who is the only free coinage candidate, and if they do he will receive the votes of 21 States. Then to defeat him the Republicans and Democrats must combine and cast the votes of the States they control for either Cleveland or Harrison. The whole delegation or a majority of it from the following States stood squarely for the Stewart bill:

Alabama, Arkansas, Colorado, Georgia, Florida, Idaho, Indiana, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Nevada, North Carolina, Oregon, South Dakota, Texas, Virginia, West Virginia and Wyoming. The delegation from California, Nebraska and Tennessee was a tie on the test vote.

If these States vote for Weaver for free coinage only a combination of the Wall Street Republicans and Democrats can defeat him, and it is doubtful if that can be made, as Nebraska and California will certainly prefer him to Cleveland.

LEADS IN AN IRON POST.

Twelve-year-old Dan Clewell was a victim of a boy's jumping game. The lad stood only six inches higher than the iron post which he endeavored to jump and which cost him his life Wednesday, while romping the streets with a lot of boys, he proposed the game. The post isn't much thicker than a gas pipe and has a pointed top and an iron ring to tie horses to. Dan took the lead and in the first jump landed heavily with his stomach on the sharply pointed post. He cried out with pain and his companions were frightened. Several passing pedestrians inquired the cause, but the boys wouldn't tell. The lad kept his accident a secret until forced by his agony to tell his mother. It was too late for the doctors to save him. He died from peritonitis.—South Bethlehem Star.

The Trouble with Many Inventions.

We are not quite perfect yet, at least we are still capable of improvements. There were more applications for patents in England last year than during any of the seven preceding years. Now, I've invented lots of things myself independently of any suggestion whatever, but I have never made anything out of it. It has always happened that the thing has been patented before by some one else. The other day I thought of an arrangement for keeping books from falling over in a shelf that is only half filled. I find out now that the very same arrangement is in quite common use.—Barry Pain in Black and White.

Invited the Young Men Also.

The New York women who are interested in working girls and their societies might find a valuable hint in the words of Miss Stanley, president of the Soho club of London. Miss Stanley takes her girls in little half day trips up the river and puts a recent invitation this way: "We would be glad of the company of any young men who are engaged to the Soho club members and would like to join the party."

There is wisdom and there, too, is the secret of Miss Stanley's popularity, not only in the club, but among the young English workmen, whose influence over the girls is not to be despised.—New York Letter.

Why Women Are Not Admitted.

Miss Ruth Kimball, the Washington correspondent who has been denied admission to the press galleries of Congress solely on account of her sex, is a niece of Senator Palmer. She is a bright young woman, with a record for success in newspaper work. The only objection raised to a woman in the galleries is that her presence might make the manners and conversation of other occupants less free.—San Francisco Argonaut.

Palace Guards Wanted.

In the Indian camp on the Grand Ronde river are seventeen marriageable Indian girls, some of whom want white men for husbands and shun the idea of marrying one of their own race. The father of one of these girls offers an inducement of 200 head of good horses to some young white man who will marry his daughter. The old Indian states he must be a young man of good character and address and able to provide his wife a good home.—Asotin (Wash.) Sentinel.

HOT WEATHER IN CHICAGO.

Fifty Deaths and More Than Twice That Number Prostrated.

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS.

Troops Called In—Long Filibustering In the House—Stage Robbers Convicted and Sentenced.

Too Hot for Health.

Chicago, July 27.—Slaughter by the sun was still on in Chicago to-day, 50 deaths and more than twice as many prostrations from heat scourging. Although there is now in a prediction of a cold wave and a possibility of relief, it is certain the number of deaths will be largely increased during the next few days. The hospitals are filled with patients suffering from sunstroke, many of whom cannot recover. The record of yesterday, which surpassed anything in the number of deaths and prostrations from heat that the city has ever known, was helped by the awful work of the sun to-day. The temperature ranged in the shade from 92 to 94, and the wind was from the south and blistering hot. The majority of the casualties are among the laboring men and in portions of the city occupied by the poorer classes. The number of horses which were sunstruck and caused a temporary blockade of the crowded thoroughfares, could hardly be counted. There were not enough horses in the police department to carry off the animals which fell during the day in and about the business centre of the city alone and it was found necessary to call in outside help. Ambulances and patrol wagons had all they could do to care for human beings. The police were overworked and several officers were prostrated.

At various hospitals the entire staff of physicians was kept busy all day and evening and was hardly enough help.

Another Land Grant Opened.

TREMPER, Cal., July 27.—Some excitement attended the opening of the land grants to-day. Settlers on farm wagons have been passing through the town continually during the day and night. Some are going to and others are coming from the County Clerk's office at Hollister. These were generally old settlers who have no doubt of being able to prove their residence on the land and the cultivation of it. San Francisco land hunters, who have rushed into the country during the past week have gone to San Francisco to make estates at the land office. This town is crowded with land seekers who have not yet made selections, but many are waiting for the stage to start in the morning for Panoche and Vallejo, which the squatters think are the choicest places for settlement. Old timers are affected very little by the opening of the land, but very new comers are nervous and excited. But there has been no violence outside of a few fights where two settlers have located upon the same quarter section. A few hardy women are here to take up oldtime and will probably secure lands.

Troops Called In.

WARDNER, Idaho, July 27.—An order relieving the company of United States troops stationed at the Bunker Hill mine created consternation among the non-union men to-day and about 40 demanded their time. A guard of ten men was left there to pacify the workmen. No more prisoners will be paroled. They will be taken before the United States Commissioner Court which is to be convened. When bound over they will be delivered into the custody of United States Marshals and in this way the State authorities will be relieved from the necessity of providing for them. One hundred and six prisoners are confined here in a building badly adapted to such purposes and the place is infested with vermin. If all the troops should be withdrawn it is said there would be an exodus of non-union miners. The War Department desires to withdraw all the troops as soon as possible, but the State authorities are using every effort to retain one or two companies of United States troops.

House Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, July 27.—The House adjourned with the filibustering movement in full swing and no light ahead. The most outspoken of the filibusters are plainly they will see the Andrey Civil bill killed before the appropriation for the World's Fair shall carry. Some Republicans are charging that it is part of the policy of the majority to permit the Andrey Civil bill to fail unless the Senate backs down on the World's Fair appropriation for the reason that it will enable the prima facie contrast to be made between the appropriations of the first session of the Fifty-first and Fifty-second Congresses.

Bingham offered a resolution revoking all leaves of absence except on account of illness. The resolution was subsequently withdrawn, however, and the House adjourned.

Stage Robbers Sentenced.

PORTLAND, July 27.—Abbe Jones and Virgil Howard, convicted of robbing the Lakeview, Or., stage last October, were today sentenced to five and thirteen years respectively in the State Penitentiary.

Senate Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, July 27.—In the Senate today three speeches were made on the Anti-Option bill. Oake assailed it for unconstitutionality. Mitchell made a legal argument in support of the constitutionality of the bill, and Palmer argued against it as an invasion against the rights of States. When Washburn tried to get unanimous consent to have a time fixed for a final vote, an objection was interposed.

For some weeks past numerous petitions have been presented in the Senate and referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations in reference to the imprisonment in England of Dr. Thomas Gallagher. Today Chairman Sherman remarked that the committee didn't know what the legislative department of the government had to do with the question.

The Senate bill to create a National Highway Commission passed.

The Senate bill to facilitate the enforcement of the immigration and contract labor laws passed.

Adjourned.

To Annex Cornwallis Island.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 27.—The steamer Australia brought word to-day that the British cruiser Ohampion left Honolulu on July 13th for the southwest, and it was thought in Honolulu that her mission was to annex Johnston or Cornwallis Island, which lies seven hundred miles southwest of the Island of Oahu. Johnston Island consists of a number of rocky islets on coral formation and was discovered by Captain Johnson of the British man-of-war Cornwallis in 1807. The Pacific Guano Co. of San Francisco raised the American flag here some time while engaged in collecting guano.

It is thought that the British Government desires the island as a station along the line of their proposed telegraph cable from Honolulu to New Zealand.

Surveyors at Work.

OROVILLE, July 27.—A report reaches here that two parties of surveyors are at work on the North Fork of Feather river. One, under Kennedy, Chief Engineer of the S. F. & G. S. L. R. R., began at Beek with Pass, and another, under Surveyor Keddie, began at Soda Bay in Plumas county. A third party begins work this week at Big Bar, 22 miles above Oroville.

Baseball.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 27.—San Francisco 5, San Jose 2.

DIED.

ODDERKIRK—In Elko, Nev., July 24, 1892, Morgan Merle, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Odderkirk, aged 1 year, 7 months and 8 days.

REBOULE—In Lamolite Valley, Elko county, Nev., July 25, 1892, August Reboule, a native of France, aged 78 years, 1 month and 7 days.

Peculiar

Many peculiar points make Hood's Sarsaparilla superior to all other medicines. Peculiar in combination, proportion, and preparation of ingredients. Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses the full curative value of the best known remedies of the vegetable kingdom. Peculiar in its strength and economy. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only medicine which can truly be said, "One Hundred Does One Dollar." Medicines in larger and smaller bottles require larger doses, and do not produce as good results as Hood's. Peculiar in its medicinal merits. Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures hitherto unknown, and has won for itself the title of "The greatest blood purifier ever discovered." Peculiar in its "goodname at home"—there is now more of Hood's Sarsaparilla sold in this country than of all other blood purifiers. Peculiar in its phenomenal record of sales abroad. No other preparation has ever attained such popularity in so short a time, and retained its popularity and confidence among all classes of people so steadily. Do not be induced by any other preparations, but be sure to get the Peculiar Medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla. Sold by all druggists. $1.50 per bottle. Prepared only by C. L. C. J. Brookins is on the street again looking thin but lively. He had a very close call, and at one time it was reported that he could not recover.

The trees and grass in the park, opposite the Court House, are not doing very well for some cause. Nearly all the trees look as if they would live and the grass has a brown and parched appearance.

Johnny Caughlin, the genial Deputy Sheriff, has put in a great deal of his spare time the last two months on the Court House lawn, and as a result has one of the prettiest yards in the town, and is justly proud of it.

George Schaeffer, the Truckee lumber man, says he is for Weaver and free coinage. Business languishes in the lumber regions, none silver depreciated. He says a half 50x150 feet has been built by him for the K. of P. dance.

An exchange says silver men cannot consistently vote either of the old party tickets, nor do they propose to do so. The Omaha platform is the only one which demands free coinage, and it is the one which they will support.

The News says: "In a few days White Pine county will be without a doctor within its borders. We think a physician located in Ely, at the center of the county, would make a good living and as much money as to most other parts of the State."

Justice Weber of Ely, he who in a stationer one shouted "no" when the motion to make Cleveland's nomination unanimous was before the Chicago Convention, fled a man ten dollars last week for threatening to dance a woman in the creek.

The Independent says Dr. J. J. Moyle and wife returned to Ely Monday evening. The Doctor looks well and is in good spirits. It will be remembered that he suffered severely from blood poisoning and was taken to the Railroad Hospital at Sacramento.

Parties going to Lake Tahoe can hereafter leave Reno on the morning passenger train at 8:40 and connect with the Carnation Springs stage, which will hold over until that time. This will avoid the trouble hitherto experienced of staying over night at Truckee.

THE SILVER QUESTION.

What An Important Observer Says On It.

The New York Voice, the great temperance paper says:

"Free coinage of silver has again been defeated in the House of Representatives. The bill which the Senate passed was speedily put to a vote and promptly remanded to the foot of the calendar, where it is next to certain it will not again be reached by the present Congress. A number of Democrats who voted for the free silver bill earlier in the session voted against it this time, not daring to place a Democratic House on record in such flat opposition to the Democratic national platform and the Democratic candidate for President. Twice now a Republican Senate has passed a free silver bill, most of the votes in its favor, however, being Democratic votes. Twice the House has killed the bill the Senate has passed, once two years ago when the House was Republican, and again last week, when it was overwhelmingly Democratic. Both President Harrison and ex-President Cleveland have publicly proclaimed their stern opposition to the measure. As between the two old parties, therefore, the issue is, for the present campaign, no issue at all. As between the People's party and both old parties it is likely to be a lively issue indeed. The defeat of free silver is in fact in all probability worth several hundreds of thousands of votes to the People's party, and gives to it an issue on which it is practically unanimous North and South, and on which it has a clear field of contest with both old parties."

THE BODIE FIRE.

The Entire Business Portion of the Town in Ashes.

A dispatch from Hawthorne says: About 2 o'clock Tuesday morning a fire broke out in the U. S. Bakery at Bodie, kept by Mrs. J. Perry. For reasons not yet known it was an hour and a half before the fire department succeeded in getting water, and the business portion of the town was destroyed. Among the heavy losers are: A. Arrid, livery stable; Levy, dry goods; Mrs. Perry, groceries; N. J. Salisbury, dry goods; J. McAlpine, saloon; P. Tobin, saloon; Walheim, shoe store; Kuhlmann Bros., drugs and dry goods; Joe Vierra, variety store and saloon; A. Maestrette, saloon; A. Saller, saloon; H. ## Resolutions of Respect

CHIEF PATRIARCH:—Your committee appointed to draft resolutions of respect for our deceased brother, O. P. Nowattney, would respectfully submit the following:

WHEREAS, The Almighty, in his all wise providence, has seen fit to remove from our midst our worthy brother, O. P. Nowattney, C. P., and it becomes our duty to manifest our esteem and commemorate the name of one so much respected and esteemed as was Brother Nowattney, and to record some of his many virtues and extend to his bereaved family the hand of sympathy and true brotherly love at this time of their great affliction.

Brother Nowattney was born in the city of Boston, Saxony, in the year of 1832, and learned the trade of meatcutter and butcher very young. He came to America in 1848 and immediately went to work at his trade and became an expert in the art of cutting, packing and curing meats. He married a worthy young lady by the name of Jennette Miller, who still survives to mourn his loss, in California, and moved with his family to Reno, Nevada, in 1875, where he made many friends by his kind, genial manner. None knew him but to like him. He was initiated into Reno Lodge No. 19, I. O. O. F., in the year of 1881, and retained membership in good standing during the rest of his life. He passed the chairs of the Subordinate Lodge and became a Past Grand. He joined the Encampment branch and passed the chairs and became Past Chief Patriarch and was then mustered into the Patriarchal Militant Degree and was elected Ensign and served in that capacity till his last sickness. He was always a generous, broad minded man. He has been a good citizen, a good Odd Fellow and a loyal friend. Therefore be it

Resolved, That in the death of Brother Nowattney our jurisdiction has lost one of its most devoted, zealous and truthful companion, the State a most useful and patriotic citizen, his family a gentle, tender and affectionate husband and father. His good name is left to us and his noble example for our imitation is before us as a beacon light, leading to a conscientious following of his footsteps in doing the works of fraternity and humanity. He was ever zealous in his efforts to promote the welfare and interests of the order, and among Odd Fellows he was a noble man among men.

Resolved, That in his death the order has lost one of its most zealous workers and the family a friend that cannot be replaced.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread in full upon the minutes of this Encampment and a copy sent to the wife and family, and that they be published in the Reno Journal.

[Signed,] R. V. BORDEN, F. O. UPDEKE, G. O. McNEES, Committee.

At Tacoma, Washington, Charles Goodridge could not get a marriage license because he forgot the name of his intended bride. He knew it was Kittie, but he could not think of her last name, which was Barrett, until after the Clerk's office was closed.

Green Goods

Don't be tempted to invest in them. You will get into trouble every time and in the end poverty and disgrace. The genuine Uncle Sam's green goods are the only ones of value. They make you rich; especially when used to purchase Simmons Liver Regulator to cure your indigestion, dyspepsia, constipation or biliousness, or drive away malaria. Don't be tempted to take anything else in place of the Regulator.

Executive Committee Meeting.

There will be a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Silver party of Nevada at Virginia City, Thursday, August 4th, at 1 o'clock, P. M. A full attendance is desired as business of importance will be discussed. G. B. NIXON, Chairman.

H. P. FLANNERY, Secretary.
[All papers favorable to the chief industry of the State please copy.]

Matt Parrott has the largest Eastern brook trout attached to his string. He caught it "up the river" as he says. It lacked two ounces of weighing two pounds and was as pretty a fish as has been brought to town. These fish were planted in the Truckee but a few years ago, and from all appearances are thriving as well as could be expected in their native waters. In a few years, with the protection that the present fish law affords, the Truckee will be unequalled as a fishing stream.

Dr. T. O. Hanson of Winnemucca has brought a lot of ore from one of his mines in Humboldt county to the Reno Reduction Works to have it sampled by mill process. He has been to Salt Lake City and tried a lot of ore by the cyanide process. The ore assayed $40 in gold and $27.40 in silver and the process saved 94 per cent of the gold and 62 per cent of the silver. He wants to test the ore by every process to ascertain which is best.

Teeth extracted painlessly, $1; old method, 25 cents. Porter Brothers.

One Pure Baking Powder.

Like Telling a Secret.

A story is told and it is a true story that over seventy per cent of all the baking powders sold contain either alum or ammonia, and many of these powders contain both. The ill effects upon the system of food raised by alum or ammonia powders are the more dangerous because of their insidious character. It would be less dangerous for the people were it fatal at once, for then such food would be avoided, but their baneful action because imperceptible at first and slow in its advances, is no less certain.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is declared by all authorities as free from alum, ammonia or any other adulterant. Its purity has never been questioned, and while it does finer and better work, it costs no more at retail than many of the adulterated powders.

Women's Political Clubs.

The women of Rhode Island who have organized for work during the recent campaign are by no means the pioneers in the political club movement. The women of Indiana have long been known for the interest that they have taken in politics and for their activity. More women go campaigning with their husbands in that state than anywhere else in the Union, and during the last fight over the presidency they were thoroughly organized into clubs for campaigning purposes. On several occasions from different parts of the state to Indianapolis to call on Mrs. Harrison. These clubs may be the forerunner of a great league of women that shall hold the same place in this country that the Primrose League does in England.—Washington Post.

Bullets in Trees.

In saving up some oak lumber at the Maine Central car shops in Waterville, Me., the other day, the workmen ran across some bullets imbedded in the wood. The oak was shipped from the vicinity of one of the battlefields of the Rebellion, and the lead is supposed to have lodged in the oak during an engagement. One of the workmen saved a strip of the lumber containing the find and will treasure it as a memento of the war.—Exchange.

Saluted by Hundreds of Boats.

As the steamship City of Paris went out Wednesday the floating equipment of the Pennsylvania Railroad company, comprising 235 vessels, ten ferryboats, thirty-five tug boats and steam lighters, at the balance freight vessels, displayed their flags and saluted President George S. Roberts, who was aboard bound for Europe.—New York Advertiser.

Women are not slow to comprehend.

They're quick. They're alive, and yet it was a man who discovered the one remedy for their peculiar ailments. The man was Dr. Pierce.

The discovery was his "Favorite Prescription"—the boon to delicate women.

Why go round "with one foot in the grave," suffering in silence—misunderstood—when there's a remedy at hand that won't an experiment, but which is sold under the guarantee that if you are disappointed in any way in it, you can get your money back by applying to its makers.

We can hardly imagine a woman's not trying it. Possibly it may be true of one or two—but we doubt it. Women are ripe for it. They have it. Think of a prescription and nine out of ten waiting for it. Carry the news to them!

The seat of sick headache is not in the brain. Regulate the stomach and you cure it. Dr. Pierce's Pills are the little regulators.

The women of Indiana have long been known for the interest that they have taken in politics and for their activity. More women go campaigning with their husbands in that state than anywhere else in the Union, and during the last fight over the presidency they were thoroughly organized into clubs for campaigning purposes. On several occasions from different parts of the state to Indianapolis to call on Mrs. Harrison. These clubs may be the forerunner of a great league of women that shall hold the same place in this country that the Primrose League does in England.—Washington Post.

Bullets in Trees.

In saving up some oak lumber at the Maine Central car shops in Waterville, Me., the other day, the workmen ran across some bullets imbedded in the wood. The oak was shipped from the vicinity of one of the battlefields of the Rebellion, and the lead is supposed to have lodged in the oak during an engagement. One of the workmen saved a strip of the lumber containing the find and will treasure it as a memento of the war.—Exchange.

Saluted by Hundreds of Boats.

As the steamship City of Paris went out Wednesday the floating equipment of the Pennsylvania Railroad company, comprising 235 vessels, ten ferryboats, thirty-five tug boats and steam lighters, at the balance freight vessels, displayed their flags and saluted President George S. Roberts, who was aboard bound for Europe.—New York Advertiser.

Women are not slow to comprehend.

They're quick. They're alive, and yet it was a man who discovered the one remedy for their peculiar ailments. The man was Dr. Pierce.

The discovery was his "Favorite Prescription"—the boon to delicate women.

Why go round "with one foot in the grave," suffering in silence—misunderstood—when there's a remedy at hand that won't an experiment, but which is sold under the guarantee that if you are disappointed in any way in it, you can get your money back by applying to its makers.

We can hardly imagine a woman's not trying it. Possibly it may be true of one or two—but we doubt it. Women are ripe for it. They have it. Think of a prescription and nine out of ten waiting for it. Carry the news to them!

The seat of sick headache is not in the brain. Regulate the stomach and you cure it. Dr. Pierce's Pills are the little regulators.

GAVE HIM ROOM.

He Only Wanted to Get Into His Room, but He Was in Earnest About It. On the steamer which came in from Florida there arrived a tall, lank citizen of the Cracker State. He was well equipped with baggage, and when he had collected his belongings and found an expressman he went up to a Broadway hotel, registered and took a room. About an hour later he reappeared at the desk.

"Reckon you didn't see the baggage brought, did you?" he asked the clerk.

"Yes."

"Notice the two trunks?"

"Yes."

"Three valises and a shawlstrap?"

"Believe so."

"See the hatbox?"

"I did."

"Umbrellas, canes, and all that?"

"Yes."

"Then I reckon you made a mistake in the room."

"I put you in 309."

"So you did," admitted the new arrival, "but it's a closet; it ain't a room."

"Nothing of the kind," snapped the clerk. "Comfortable, airy room; we had no other."

"Is, hey? Well, the porter has just brought up my baggage, and it's all inside except the shawlstrap and me. We was last and couldn't get in."

"You asked for a dollar room," said the clerk.

"I know it."

"I can give you a suite on the fourth floor for five dollars a day."

"Don't want it," rejoined the Florida citizen emphatically. "Colonel," he added with a graceful wave of his hand, "I ain't come down to kick; I'm perfectly satisfied. I like your hotel. The rooms is all large and airy. Me and the shawlstrap is going to get into 800. It may take some noise and hammerin', but we'll get that. I'm going to spit on my hands and begin pretty soon, and I thought I'd ask you to send some one around in about an hour to sweep up the splinters."

The clerk looked at the mild mannered Florida man for a moment in silence. Then he said: "Front, show the gentleman to that suite on the south corner, fourth floor. No extra charge, sir," he added to the guest with a beaming smile; "you must be tired after the voyage. Anything else I can do?"—New York Tribune.

Tread by a Bear.

Information has reached the city of the exciting experience of George Allen and Mike Flynn, two prospectors, with a cinnamon bear in the mountains a short distance from Lead Cliff. The men were on a prospecting tour and well armed. As they were eating breakfast they were paralyzed to see a short distance away and coming toward them in a leisurely manner, attracted by the odor of the bacon they had just cooked, a huge bear. Allen advised flight, but Flynn could not resist the temptation to use his Winchester. Taking careful aim, he fired.

The ball struck the bear in the neck and with a roar he rushed for the shooter. Flynn fled for his life, with the bear in hot pursuit. Before running far he was fortunate enough to find a tree with low reaching branches. Grasping one of these he swung clear of the ground just as the bear came jumping up, escaping with a claw in the left leg. The bear attempted to follow, but was finished with a shot in the spine from Allen's rifle.—Leadville City. Denver News.

Individuality in Umbrellas.

There is an individuality about umbrellas, taking them all along the years, that is a most interesting study. The big, clumsy green cotton umbrella which is the heirloom of the old fashioned family is unmistakable in its domesticity. The somber black umbrella of the parson is the very essence of respectability. The demure, unsophisticated umbrella that is always getting lost or hiding behind the doors never survives to old age. The jolly round umbrella that never loses its head in a flirtation with the wind is an esteemed member of the family. The combative umbrella with a cruel beak runs amuck with the populace, and not infrequently kills its man. There is lots of human nature in an umbrella, especially after it has been magnetized by its owner.—Detroit Free Press.

Heroic Lighthouse Men.

Many a deed of heroism is performed by the light keepers in Uncle Sam's employ. Scores of people have been saved from the wrecks by the heroic men of the New South shore Lighthouse, who never hesitate to launch a boat in the most violent storm for the purpose of a rescue. On one occasion twenty-seven persons were snatched by them from a watery grave when the City of Newcastle ran upon the Nantucket banks and sank stern foremost.

On another day they caught sight of a black object driven before the gale, and putting forth in pursuit of it rescued a man on a raft, whom they found seated upon the corpse of a fellow castaway, his head buried in his hands and hopeless of the aid which came at last.—Washington Star.

Lettuce Fritters.

Lettuce fritters are a delicate breakfast or luncheon dish. Select crisp rather small leaves of young lettuce and tear apart in pieces about the size of a quarter of a dollar, stir thickly into a batter of one egg, one tablespoonful sweet cream, salt and enough flour to make a moderately stiff batter. Drop by the spoonful in hot oil, or fry in olive oil, just enough to keep the skillet from burning.—New York Times.

The Young American.

One of the most discouraging things which happen to the person who undertakes to instruct the juvenile mind is to find that the small boy presents a complex psychological study every time you see him, while he knows all your weak points twenty minutes after he first meets you.—Kate Field's Washington.
